Wiley-VCH からの回答

I have spoken to our rights department here at Wiley-VCH and our in-house Law team and unfortunately they say that you are not permitted to post this manuscript on your institutional archive. You are more than welcome to provide a link to our full-text service at Wiley InterScience (WIS), bearing in mind that the readers and authors will benefit from the additional services provided by WIS, such as reference linking, citation tracking, and support of reference management software. Also, this articles' visibility in Google and other search engines depend on the number of links to them.

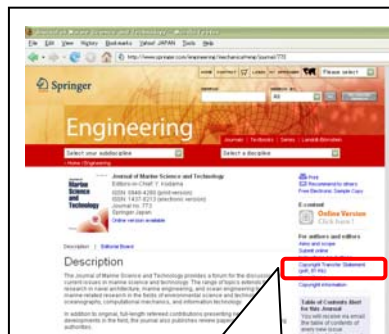

Sorry we couldn't be of more help.

 at the same time you submit via Editorial Manager)

We are required to obtain from authors the copyright of papers published in the Journal of Marine Science and Technology for the term of copyright, and we would be grateful if you would confirm your acceptance by signing and returning the agreement below. We will not withhold permission for any reasonable request from you to publish any part of this paper in connection with any other work by you, provided the usual acknowledgments are given regarding copyright notice and reference to the original publication. If it is appropriate, the author's employer may sign this agreement and, in any event, the employer may reserve the right to use the paper internally or for promotional purposes only, by indicating on this agreement. The author warrants that the manuscript is the author's original work and has not been published before. (If excerpts from copyrighted works are included, the author will obtain written permission from the copyright owners and show credit to the sources in the manuscript). If the work was prepared jointly, the author agrees to inform coauthors of the terms of the agreement and to sign on their behalf.
